.As my first guest to my podcast, “The Lightheaded Podcast” I couldn’t have asked for a better guest to introduce me to the industry of interviewing and podcasting.

Scott was extremely professional, polite, innocuous, and patient. Scott showed me what a great guest should be like behind the scenes and on the podcast. He brought many good topics of conversation and stories that seemed to flow off the tongue with ease, ultimately making it very easy to transition between subjects and ideas.

Scott is a perfect guest for almost any podcast for two reasons. First, he is an entertainer at heart and knows that you need to be engaging with the host and the audience. Second, he speaks intelligently about a number of topics. We discussed three different subjects on Public Safety Talk Radio and he was awesome. I certainly plan to have him on as a guest on other shows I produce.

R. Scott Edwards was an astoundingly enjoyable guest on my podcast. He has amazing stories from his decades in the comedy business that were both entertaining and useful. Beyond the stories, his advice regarding comedy was incredibly helpful and he’s an extremely friendly and giving man.

YOU'LL BINGE ON LAUGHS! *****

Scott Edwards has a Great show! I love the interview style of how he intertwines the nostalgic elements, by talking about comedians and shows of the past, and current comedians joke about current events like coronavirus. GREAT SHOW! ENGAGING! AND FUN! I binged on several episodes at a time! Subscribe! Scott and Guests are well worth it!
